7. A judge abused their discretion ordering that

I withhold my son's child support and use it for my survival. Denying me an income because my adult son receives child support from his father. My adult son lives in Massachusetts on campus as a college student. His child support payment isn't enough to maintain his needs. My son don't eat in my, he eat. He pays for his phone, internet, transportation, food, and a long list of other expenses. I gave my son the minimum of $300 monthly and greater than $800 a month. I write checks for his expenses as well as use Amazon and allow him access to my debit card. All of my son's money to go to his needs. I've experienced this with the caseworker prior to Rene. She was simply being ugly and difficult. Told me to get a job. Verbally attacked and the intent was malicious.

My son is unwilling to establish a relationship with Anoka County General Assistance nor he willing to provide his financial information as proof. He said if I don't have a problem and you don't have a problem why do feel they must manage and balance my child support.

Can a judge order a parent to deny their child child support? Deny a parent child support knowing the adult son lives out of state and needs it
